NOTES OF THANKS

I want to thank my beloved church family for all your continued cards, letters, e-mails, gifts, and most of all, your persistent and loving prayers.

Your support has helped me immensely during the first phase of my journey. I’m doing well and I’m excited to be starting the next step of my journey towards recovery.

I’ve found a Lutheran Church to attend with a Praise Team, Prayer Shawl Ministry, Community Dinners, and most of all, warm and friendly people like all of you!

It was wonderful seeing so many of you when I was home for the weekend. Please continue your prayers. I feel the strength and peace from them. And the cards, letters, and e-mails (I have my own computer now.) please keep them coming. I look so forward to them. I’ve been told that I hold the record for the most mail received here.

God bless each of you. I love you.

My new address is:

Joy Williams
6522 Wandermere
Malibu, CA 90265

Dear Friends at Christ Lutheran,

Thanks so very much for all the calls, cards, and most of all, the prayers before and after my knee surgery. Special thanks to Pastor Kris for her caring words and visits and to Marilyn Bodle, Carol Hughes, Nancy Kraning, and Mary Redd for taking care of the office duties. All the folks at Christ Lutheran are the BEST! May God bless each of you.

In the love of Jesus,
Sally Kennedy

Dear Ones All,

I want to thank you all so much for all the beautiful birthday cards for my 95th birthday, loving concern, prayers (so many), flowers, and cookies, and for all the beautiful Christmas cards I can’t seem to “thank you” enough or the Good Lord either. God bless you all and keep you safe, well, and happy in His loving care. God’s love to you all and mine, too.

Lovingly,
Jean Downey

Dear Pastor Kris and Kathy Mehler,

The valentine was beautiful and so were the cookies! We enjoyed them very much. It is nice to be remembered after all these years. One day I will visit again, when the weather is better.

Love and blessings!!!
Dorothy Pfeffer

Dear Friends,

Thank you for your recent gift of $380.00 to support Lutheran World Relief's ongoing work to help the people of Haiti. Please visit lwr.org/blog for photographs and stories of how your gifts of love are touching people in Haiti. On behalf of all of us at LWR, our partner staff, and those we serve in the name of God, thank you for your gift.

In Christ,

Dear Christ Lutheran Family,

Thanks to all of you who prayed for our dad, brought him cookies, and shared his Sundays with him. Thank you also for the lunch after Dad's service. It was very nice and greatly appreciated.

Your kind expression of sympathy and friendship will always remain in our memories. Thank you for your thoughtfulness.
